The Library will be closed on September 2 - 4 for Labor Day weekend, and open on Sundays after Labor Day!

Solar Eclipse @ the Library August 21, 1:30 - 3:00 pm

Come celebrate the first total solar eclipse view-able from the United States since 1979! We will have space-themed crafts, activities and stories here at the library, and we can all go outside to watch the eclipse.

Thanks to STAR_Net's NASA@ My Library initiative with support from Cut NASA, the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation, Research Corporation, and Google, the library will have free glasses to safely view the solar eclipse on a first-come, first-served basis. You can pick up a pair at the Circulation Desk.

The most complete view of the eclipse will be between 2:20pm and 2:30pm.

Get Ready for Kindergarten!

August 10, 6:00 pm

Help your kids get ready to read with hands-on, fun activities. Alisa Clark (Of South Lyon Reading Success) will show parents and kids new ways to prepare to learn to read. Ages 4-5 with a caregiver. Please RSVP here!
